

Right, daguerrotype of Joseph Smith from which C. W. Carter made "retouched photographs" of the Mormon leader. LDS Church Information Service. Left, painting believed to be by Majors belongs to the Reorganized LDS Church. A copy of the painting was given to the National Portrait Gallery in November 1971.

Joseph Smith

"Therefore, renounce war and proclaim
peace, and seek diligently to turn the hearts of the children
to their fathers..."

Doctrine and Covenants, 98:16, August 6, 1833.